

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR PARK MEADOWS VILLAGE
OCCUPANTS A CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION

January 22, 2024

These rules are designed to make living in our Condominium community pleasant and comfortable. In living together, all of us not only have certain rights, but also certain obligations to other occupants. We must remember that the restrictions we impose upon ourselves are for our mutual benefit and comfort.

The following rules do not supersede the Articles of Incorporation, the Association Bylaws, the Declarations or any other legal obligation.

Objectionable behavior is not acceptable even if it is not specifically covered in the rules. Violations by occupants, employees, guests or children are the responsibility of those occupants and owners.

The rules will be enforced as follows: Violations will be called to the attention of the violating occupant by the managing agent, and the managing agent will then notify the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has authorized the managing agent to interpret and enforce the rules.

plaints or violations should be directed to the managing agent, not to the Board of Directors or the officers of the corporation. Violators are subject to injunction and/or liability for damages, attorney fees and other costs incurred by the association.
